

14th Summer Institute on Migration and Global Health

July 10-13, 2019. Oakland & Berkeley CA, USA

The Summer Institute on Migration and Global Health is an international event that provides an inter-disciplinary applied research platform for migration and global health, that includes public health, public policy, and social science perspectives.

Who should attend: Researchers, faculty, graduate students, and professionals working with or interested in migrant populations.

Format: The four-day course includes a combination of lectures, workshops, poster sessions, and field trips, to offer an exceptional opportunity, not only to learn but also to create professional networks.

Location: The California Endowment Conference Center, Oakland, California & UC Berkeley School of Public Health.

Live-streaming option available!

If you cannot join us in person, you can still watch the lectures through our online live-streaming platform. Watch the lectures from anywhere in the world and through most devices. You will have live access to the morning plenary sessions on July 10, 11 and 12, and the opportunity to ask questions and interact with the speakers. You will also have access to the recordings after the event. Registration fee $190 USD is required to receive the access code.

More information and Registration:

MigrationAndGlobalHealth.org

Topics

- Current and historical trends and policies on migration and global health
- Best practices in responding to refugee needs in Europe
- Regional coordination to mass migration in Latin America
- Health disparities among Asian immigrants
- Human rights and medical-legal partnerships
- Refugee health
- Gender, vulnerability and resilience
- Mental health and migration
- Research methodologies and data sources

Organized by:

Berkeley Public Health

